本祭

Main Festival November 11th (Sun) 2018, 11:30-

The storytellers' theater in the Edo Period is recreated in the precinct of Bishamonten Zenkoku-ji Temple, offering traditional storytelling arts such as "Kodan". Various live performances can be enjoyed on the main street of Kagurazaka while the secret world of Geisha unfolds itself in "Kenban". Take a walk back in time by participating in the stamp rally through the local historic sites and complete your day with the special evening show at Akagi-jinja Shrine. This main festival will take you all over the town of Kagurazaka and let you fully appreciate and experience Japanese culture.
