

How about experiencing a glimpse of the world of Kabuki?

Traditional culture experience program for foreign visitors

Kabuki

We offer a program that lets foreign tourists and others to experience authentic Japanese traditional culture in a short time.

Kabuki is one of Japan's representative traditional art of entertainment, integrating elements of music, dance, and acting. It is said to have been created in Kyoto around 1600. Since then, it has continued to pass down its traditions while incorporating modernity, continuing to exist as a form of the theater which has fascinated people for more than 400 years. In 2005, it was registered as UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage.
