

The workshops of Japanese flower arrangement, Tokyo Kumihimo (braided cords) and Kimono dressing will be held at the Hama-rikyu Gardens. This is a valuable opportunity to come in contact with traditional culture in a Japanese traditional garden well-known as a "metropolitan oasis." Guidance is available in English and we will hand out the manual in Japanese, English, Chinese and Korean. You can join the program at the venue on the day, so feel free to come.
